English Instructors Attend Conference At San Jose State

Over 60 people, the majority of them representatives from secondary schools in this area, attended the regional meeting of the California Association of Teachers of English held at SJSU recently.

The meeting was held in connection with planning curriculum study. Teachers from Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, and Monterey counties attended the affair.

Miss Margaret Heaton, supervisor of San Francisco public schools, conducted the meeting. Miss Heaton is associated with the American Council of Education, Human Relations Study, and is the author of "Literature for Human Understanding." She is chairman of the high school section of curriculum study.

Hostesses included Miss Marjorie McGilvrey, vice-president of the English association and member of the staff at Mountain View high school; Mrs. Dorothy C. Wright, Woodrow Wilson Junior high school, San Jose; Mrs. Charlotte Rideout, San Jose State college; and Dr. Josephine Chandler, San Jose State college professor and member of the board of directors of the English association.

The meeting was arranged by Dr. Henry Menckel and Mr. Will J. Dusel, members of the San Jose State college faculty.

Guests at the affair included Dr. Earle P. Crandall, director of instruction in San Jose public schools; and Mr. Charles R. Timpany, assistant superintendent and coordinator of curricula for Santa Clara county.

A barbecue prepared by Al Riddle and Andy Anderson was held on the campus prior to the meeting.

Queen Candidates

Candidates for Spardi Gras queen may pick up application blanks at Dean of Women Helen Dimmick's office, it was announced yesterday by the Spardi Gras committee. The applications should be returned to the same office.

Poring over posters, advertising the College Chapel Fund ball to be held May 6 are members of the dance committee.

Baker To Interview For Stewardess Jobs

Mr. W. H. Baker, regional personnel manager for American Airlines, will be on the San Jose State college campus May 10 to interview girls interested in becoming airline stewardesses, the Aeronautics department has announced.

Stewardess requirements are as follows: 21-27 years old; single; 5' 1" tall; weight under 130 pounds; good vision without glasses.

Interested co-eds may obtain application blanks and further information from Mr. Tom Leonard, second floor of the Aeronautics lab building. His office hours are 10:30-11:30 Monday, Wednesday, Friday and all afternoon Tuesday and Thursday.

Chess Champ To Vie With SJSU Teachers At Exhibition Game

Professors Lyman H. Daugherty, L. C. Newby and Francis Crofut have been invited to participate in a simultaneous chess exhibition in Hart's auditorium Saturday.

The faculty members, and any San Jose student who would like to play, will meet Weaver W. Adams, U.S. Open Chess champion, at 1:30 p.m. After the simultaneous contest, Weaver will deliver a lecture explaining his favorite line of play.

"In the event some student without chessmen would like to play, a set of chessmen will be obtained if advance reservations are made," said Harry B. Shaw, secretary of the San Jose Chess club. Otherwise, he said, the students should bring their own chessmen.

Mr. Shaw continued, "the club Mr. Shaw continued, 'The club lady play in the exhibition. If there are any girl chess players in State, we will be glad to furnish everything necessary.'"

'Ain't' Ain't So Awful — Webster

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
(UP Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON — The boss once kicked up a fuss because I used the word "ain't" in a story.

I fought back, in a quiet sort of way. But I now apologize. Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary contains the word "ain't". That ought to be a triumph for me, but it ain't. It says, and I quote:

"Ain't:—Contraction of 'are not'; also for 'am not'; or 'is not'; 'has not';—now used in dialect or illiterate speech."

The new word book has 1209 pages and includes a section at the back on "proofreaders' marks" for people who are about to go into the newspaper business or start editing galley proofs on books.

If you read the new book with care you wouldn't have to go to school. There are sections on compound adjectives, compound adverbs, how to split an infinitive at 10 paces or to divide a hyphen.

If you want to know when to use a capital letter, just turn to page 1205. All about compounds and hyphenation is on leaf 1203.

The book has some 600,000 "entries" or words, and a lot of new ones are added to our American

Barbecue Follows Sophomore Meet

A class barbecue will precede the sophomore council meeting this afternoon, according to Beverly Etter, chairman of the sophomore barbecue committee.

The meeting, usually held at 4:30 at the Student Union, will convene at the campus barbecue pits at 5:30 today.

Bob Madsen, class president, asked all members who signed up at the Graduate Manager's office to attend.

Spartan Revelries Head Is Cited For Alleged Neglect Of Official Duties

By FRANK BROWN and GEORGE LAJEUNESSE

Charges of negligence in office were leveled against Ray Bishop, 1949 Revelries director, by the Student Council in their weekly meeting yesterday.

A list of five instances were read by President Tom Wall against Bishop's alleged failure to carry out the complete duties of his office. The Council voted unanimously to bring the issue before the Student Court.

Prexy at Confab

President T. W. MacQuarrie is attending a meeting of state college presidents this week in San Francisco, according to Lowell C. Pratt, public relations director.

The sessions opened yesterday and will continue through tomorrow.

Spartan Graduate Gets Island Post

William Castro, 1939 graduate of San Jose State college, has been appointed administrator of the division of adult probation in the First Circuit court of Hawaii, according to Dr. Heber Sotzin, Industrial Arts department head.

His staff includes eight college-trained investigators and several secretaries. They investigate felony cases and report their findings to the trial judge.

A former Industrial Arts major, Castro married a Spartan graduate who is seeking a doctor's degree in English.

Castro attributes his success to the broad education he received at San Jose State college.

'Lucky Friday 13th' Tickets on Sale

Tickets for the Chi Pi Sigma "Lucky Friday 13th" dance will be on sale today in the Library arch booth, announced Dean R. Patrick, publicity officer. The bids to the dressy sport affair are $2.

"The first annual sport dance of the Chi Pi Sigma police fraternity will be held at La Rinconada Country club," stated Lt. Col. James K. Watts, assistant professor of Military Science and Tactics. "Bring your dates to enjoy the music of Al Ferguson and the atmosphere of those warm spring nights in the Los Gatos countryside."

The patrons and patronesses of the first open dance to be sponsored by the fraternity since the police school re-opened will be Lt. Col. and Mrs. Watts, Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Kristovich.

Could Be Worse

Santa Clara Valley (UP)—Fair and cooler today.

Charges Listed

Bishop's trial is scheduled to be aired in the Student Court on Wednesday, May 11, at 3:30 p.m.

According to President Wall, Bishop neglected to carry out the following duties, as stated in Article III, Section 2 of the ASB constitution:

1. He failed to submit a written report as required each quarter.
2. He did not present a financial report the first Council meeting of each month.
3. He failed to attend Council meetings.
4. He has not submitted a recommendation for his successor.

Wall also maintained that Bishop had not filed a complete written report for next year's Revelries director after he had been requested to do so.

Actions Contrary

The ASB president said that Bishop's actions were contrary to Article II, Section 1 of the constitution which states the Revelries director shall, "Conduct such programs and execute such actions as shall contribute to the welfare of the college and Associated Students as determined by the Student Council."

Other business on the Student Council's calendar last night included the matter of State college delegates to the PSPA convention in Sun Valley, Idaho, next month.

Because of insurance difficulties involved in private planes the Dean's committee advised the delegates be sent by commercial airlines. Wall announced that he and President-elect Don Schaeffer will be the only students representing San Jose State at the convention.

Nominations Scheduled

"The Student Court recommended the third week in May for nominations to ten positions on the Court. They include: two senior justices, two representatives at large, two new justices, three class representatives, and one prosecuting attorney.

An "Oklahoma Land Rush" was described by Spardi Gras chairman Dick Cirigliano, as the method in which organizations will be granted booth space for the annual festival.

Cirigliano explained that the booths will be plotted out in advance and the organizations involved will be invited to enter "the fastest runner they can find" to race to the scene on a specified day to file an official "claim" for their space.

WSSF Drive Failing

The World Students Service Fund drive has netted only $500 to date. "This is far short of expectations, and I urge all participating organizations to more effort," Marsh Pitman, WSSF chairman, said yesterday.

Bulletin Boards Sans Worth

Sophomore council suggestions for a four-class bulletin board revealed recently are apt to run into some opposition on campus. Although the ideas doubtless have merit they run counter to a policy inaugurated by President MacQuarrie of removing all bulletin boards except the ones in the hall by Morris Dailey.

At the time of Dr. MacQuarrie's action there were some 20 bulletin boards at various locations around campus which did nothing to enhance the appearance of the landscape. They were abolished and the announcement column in the Spartan Daily was started to take their place.

The announcement column exists for the purpose of letting class members, on-campus organization members, and members of other on-campus activities know what is doing, where, and when. If the column is used to its full potentialities the proposed bulletin-board for class use will be unnecessary.

STAN'S SLANTS.....By Sadler

"We Have A Few Repeaters This Year!"

Trading Post's

By AL WILLIAMSON

We see from an editorial in the Idaho "Argonaut," that an eight-year-old city ordinance requiring dogs to be tied or penned during summer months has been repealed.

A writer signed "H.R." felt that, "Undoubtedly someone's garden would be trampled by an oversized, frolicking dog." He went on to say that some would probably bury bones in petunia beds, also.

Pooch Gets A Hit

However, H.R. came to the conclusion, finally, that the ruin seemed little sacrifice to see the "jaunty bounce of a cocker's ears" as he ran across the lawn, to watch the joyous play of pups and children, and "hear the deep bark of a mutt playing ball."

How right can H.R. get? What could be more joyful in the summertime than the deep bark of a mutt playing ball? In fact, the mutt need not even emit deep barks; just seeing him out there playing ball, rapping out a sharp single, stealing second, rounding third on a pass ball, and sliding home would be joy enough to these tired and disbelieving old eyes.

Early Ice

For the "Union Democrat," professed spokesman for the Korean democracy, we learn that on November 14, "The first ice appeared in Korea at Kwngiu in Cholla Pu Do. It is about a week earlier than last year."

Hmmm

United Press finds that Judge Rudolph F. Desort's advice to people getting married is: "If you want to avoid in-law trouble, pick your mate from an orphanage."

He seems to have taken an impregnable position.

Then the "Clipsheet" tells of the man who spent the night in jail. After his release the next day, he returned to pick up his luggage . . . and was jailed for drunkenness.

New Light Thrown On Lighting Shows Dark Complications

By LEW NOFZIGER

With most of us, switching on the lights is an automatic process and we think nothing of it. Unless some slob of a bulb-snatcher has been there first, or the damn thing has blown. That of course, is a different story.

As a rule, however, there is no inconvenience involved. We don't have to trim a wick or worry about a draft snuffing the candle out. Furthermore, the cost of supplying individual houses with light bulbs each year is negligible.

After talking to Building Superintendent Byron Bollinger, we found that such is not the case, however, here at State. They, too, have no wick trimming worries, but costs of throwing a little light on the subject and replacement problems are multiplied many times.

How would you like to shell out $2344 during the year just for light bulbs? That's what happens here, even with the 42 per cent discount they get.

They don't limit their buying to three or four bulb sizes, either. They buy lights of all sizes and shapes, ranging from little, red six wattlers for the library to not so little 1500 wattlers for Spartan stadium to 20-40 watt fluorescent tubes that are used in various places around the campus.

They have other troubles, too. Just any bulb won't fit any socket. The fluorescents, for instance, plug in; so do some of the 750 wattlers, called bipens, that are used in the Art building.

Ski Club Ends Season

Spartan Ski Club Contingent Boasts Donner Summit Tans

By HERB BLATT

While many Spartans were busy getting tans at Santa Cruz, 94 members of the San Jose State Ski club spent last spring vacation getting their tans, and skiing, at the Cal Lodge on Donner Summit.

The lodge, rented from the Winter Sports club at the University of California, was completely filled. Even the "Ice-box" a small annex to the lodge, was jammed. The club had the lodge from Sunday night to Friday afternoon, the UC Winter Sports club members using it on the weekends.

For entertainment, many of the ski-fiends went to Reno in the evenings. On Thursday night, Dave Brown, president of the club, arranged a farewell party with dancing, games, and refreshments.

The only accident of the trip happened at Soda Springs, when Marilyn Becker wrenched her knee and ankle. It is told that Gil Erbb, Ski club treasurer and member of the ski team, sprouted wings and flew down the mountain to give first aid.

Other reports tell of ski team member, Dick Robinson, practicing on his cross-country racing. Allan Jones walking out of his 360 degree turns, Anne Herrington up for another try. She broke both legs last spring vacation. Also Norma Johnson and Bob Sephens had a time taking pictures. Joan Kennedy finally got around to wearing the sweater she knitted. Others had fun trying to get up and then trying to stay up.

on immediately, while most flicker for a second or two first.

And that isn't all. Aside from the above differences, other factors have to be taken into consideration. For instance, lights vary according to filament design—some have helical coils and some are fluted. They vary according to voltage and amperage. The glass in the lights is classified three ways—clear, daylight, and frosted. They differ according to the amount of light they give off—called "lumens." And they differ in burning time, with some of the smaller bulbs lasting for 1000 hours, while the 1000 watters have a rated life of only 75 hours.

And so it goes. They use a total of nearly 6300 lights a year here at State, and these are broken down into over 20 different categories.

Which all goes to show that maybe it isn't so easy after all to "follow the gleam," or keep "the light of the world" burning.

Landis Improves Following Mishap

Bob Landis, 24, junior engineering major, is reported "holding his own" in a Livermore hospital following an auto accident in which he was critically injured three weeks ago.

St. Paul Hospital attendants say he is suffering from crushed ribs, internal injuries, and a severe concussion. He is receiving visitors for short periods, friends say.

Landis and his wife were beginning a fishing trip April 8 when their coupe was struck by a boulder and thrown 600 feet from the Altamont pass. His wife sustained minor injuries.

Robinson Speaks At CSTA Meeting

"Approximately 300 teachers are needed for general elementary teaching positions in California," Miss Doris Robinson told members of the California Student Teachers association at a recent meeting in room A-1.

Miss Robinson said that holders of emergency teaching credentials may be offered positions if the present shortage continues.

"At present," she said, "the general secondary field is overcrowded and there are very few openings. Men's physical education also is a field which has many applicants for each vacancy which is reported."

As director of placement, Miss Robinson has received calls for teachers from one end of the state to the other. From Crescent City in Del Norte county, to Needles in San Bernardino county at the southern end of the state, schools have contacted her asking for teachers.

Mr. Bos made his second visit to the Spartan campus upon the invitation of Miss Maurine Thompson of the music faculty. His last appearance was in 1945 when he spent a day with San Jose State college vocalists.

Nelson Eddy, Rise Stevens, Jan Peerce, and Richard Crooks are just a few of the great vocalists who have been coached and accompanied by Mr. Bos.

The pianist has also accompanied Fritz Kreisler, Yehudi Menuhin, and other renowned instrumentalists.

Recent public notice came to Mr. Bos when he was chosen to prepare Margaret Truman for a New York concert debut this fall.

Savant May Have Oldest Tree Fossil

A fossil which may prove to be a portion of the world's oldest broad-leaf tree is in the possession of Dr. Lyman Daugherty of the Science department. The fossil was loaned to Dr. Daugherty by Dr. Ralph Chaney of the University of California.

According to Dr. Daugherty the fossil came from a marine deposit which was laid down in early Cretaceous times. It is thought to be a remnant of earliest angiosperms and is probably 80 million years old.

Indian Nine Dumps San Jose State, 10-3

The Stanford baseball team added another to the growing list of current athletic victories over San Jose State college last night, drubbing the Spartans 10-3 at Washington Park. The San Jose nine lost the game in the first inning when three hits, four walks and a pair of errors resulted in five Indian runs. Starting Spartan pitcher, Ray Jacobus, held on, and gave up only one more hit in two additional innings he pitched.

Stein Belts Ball

Led by Mel Stein, who rapped out a double and two singles during the evening, San Jose peeked away at Indian chucker Frank LeBrun for runs in the second and third frames. Dave Stott took over in the fourth, however, blanking San Jose for the next three innings.

The Cards ace hurler, Dave Dahle, worked the last three stanzas and was touched for the final Spartan run in the ninth.

Ralph Romero succeeded Jacobus in the fourth for San Jose, allowing but one safe blow over three cantos, but Pete Mesa, who followed Romero, gave up five hits in three innings of mound duty. Four more San Jose errors helped mar his efforts.

Rally Short Lived

It looked as if the Spartans might come to life in the ninth when Bob Wuesthoff blasted a double high off the right field screen and Stein smashed out his third hit of the night, driving Wuesthoff across the plate. Dahle settled down to retire the side, however.

Short score:

Stanford (runs)	501 100 120—10
Hits	301 100 131—10
San Jose (runs)	011 000 001—3
Hits	023 000 002—8

Tracksters Excell In Picking Up Place Points In Victory

DON LOPES, a major cog in the San Jose State infield whose fielding and hitting will play a large part in the Spartans drive for the CCAA baseball crown.

Aside from the records made and tied in Saturday's 77-1-3 to 52-2-3 win over Fresno, Spartan track and field men turned in several excellent performances.

Ronnie Maltre, unbeaten in CCAA competition, a transfer from Glendale J.C., and a selection on the LOOK 1945 high school All-American track team, soared out 23 ft. 6 1/2 in. to win the broad jump. Spartan Dick Fortier, returning to form, was second with a good 23 ft. 2 1/2 in. leap.

Jack and Bill Passey, taking second and third behind Fresno's Merle Martin in the 110 high hurdles, surprised the dopsters no end. Walt Lumpkin, took the second spot in the low sticks for another upset.

440 men Fred Magini and Bob Herrick, although failing to upset a favored Bulldog quarter miler, ran 49.8 and 49.9 to place second and third.

Co-captain Steve O'Meara, who had won from teammate Bob Crowe, a week before in both sprints, trailed Crowe closely for second in these events Saturday. Crowe's times in the 100 and 220 were 9.6 and 21.0. San Jose's L. W. Hall added to Spartan points in the 220 with a close third, making a clean sweep of that race for the Wintermen.

Bob Nicholai picked up an important second in the 880, while Boyd Porch did likewise in the javelin throw.

Mel Martin, still jumping short of his school record of 6 ft. 6 7/16 in., annexed first at 6 ft. 2 3/4 in. in the high jump and Ivan Bland went into a three-way tie for second with two Fresno men.

Coach Bud Winter will spend this week conditioning his charges for the tough CCAA meet to be held at Fresno Saturday.

Knox Wins Frisco Cross City Race

Merle Knox, former Spartan distance runner, competing under San Francisco Athletic club colors, Sunday won the annual seven and a half mile cross-city race in San Francisco.

Knox, covering the distance in 42:58, took the lead from the Olympic club's John Holden as the two entered the stretch. The time eclipsed last year's mark of 44:27, but was far short of record holder Norman Bright's 39:57, a mark set in 1937.

SFAC, with Knox's first and place points by other club entries, won the perpetual team trophy.

Spartan Golf Team Wins Tourney Games

Warming up for the coming Cal Open and CCAA tournaments, five Spartan golfers won their first round matches in the Peninsula Country Club Invitational tournament at San Mateo Sunday.

The remaining rounds will be played over a period of several weeks enabling the team to enter the California Open at Fresno this weekend. Capt. Howard Verutti was the lone State stylist to lose his match.

Linn Ties Record

Ironical—that's what it is. During Saturday's SJ-Fresno trackfest, Woody Linn heaved the discus 162 ft. to tie ex-Spartan Ray Overhouse's college record. Overhouse, now an Olympic club platter-man, working out with the discus men Saturday, got off his best competitive throw, a 167 ft. effort.
